SUBJECT: UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S REPORT (EL SALVADOR)

REF: STATE 022932

On February 13, Poloff discussed Reftel with Mario Rivera, Director of Multilateral Affairs for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Rivera stated that he found it disturbing that the UN Rapporteurs had not accepted the invitation of the U.S. Government to see Guantanamo firsthand, and openly questioned what the source of their information might have been. Rivera stated that he intended to contact the Salvadoran Mission to the United Nations in Geneva for more information, and would review the report when it was officially published.
